Bodily injury liability insurance covers claims made against you for injuries to others if you are at fault in an auto accident. Bodily injury liability pays for such damages, but only up to the limit you selected. Below are your bodily injury liability limit options and the applicable premium for each option. You can choose a bodily injury limit that is split per person / per accident, or a combined single limit where one limit applies to both bodily injury and property damage caused by one accident. The premium shown is the total for bodily injury coverage for all vehicles listed on your policy. If you choose a limit less than $250,000 per person and $500,000 per accident or if you choose a combined single limit of less than $510,000, you will be required to confirm your understanding of these options and sign the Michigan Choice of Bodily Injury Coverage Limits.
